

Chris Linn

America's Magical Funnyman™

Comedy Star From:

For a comedian who truly knows how to "wow" a corporate audience, look no further than Chris Linn. Chris earns his title of America's Magical Funnyman™ with a show that features hilarious comedy as well as some amazing magical moments. Chris' show is so popular for company events and conventions, he performed for over 300 different clients in 2007...and logged over a half a million miles of travel, to 47 different states, doing it!

Picture Steve Martin and Jim Carrey doing magic tricks, and you pretty much can imagine the fun of Chris Linn's show. The performance is unique and vastly different from other corporate entertainment, as Chris mixes his comedy with clever magic illusions, and physical gags to make a high-energy and laugh infused show. It is like a one-man Las Vegas production show!

Chris constantly interacts with the audience during his performances, and much of the comedy in the show is centered around playful and charismatic routines with audience members. This puts Chris' show at the top of the list for clients who want entertainment that captivates and involves their audience.

The recipient of the 2008 Best of Corporate Speakers and Entertainers award for "Best Comedy Variety Show", and voted "favorite entertainment act" at the Orlando, Florida Convention Center, Chris' show was undisputedly made for corporate events. Corporate clients such as AT&T, Best Buy, Merck Pharmaceuticals, and The Walt Disney Company have all used Chris' talents to treat their guests to a night of laughter and illusion at their national sales conferences and corporate conventions.
